Tuition and Financial Arrangements

The tuition for the DENTAL ASSISTING course of study offered by this institution is:

$2995.00

The above tuition covers all costs for the course. Lunch is not provided; however several eating establishments are within short walking distance.

The course will run ten (10) consecutive weeks, eight classroom hours per week for a total of eighty (80) classroom hours of instruction. This will include lecture material as well as clinical "hands on" training. In addition, there is approximately 40 hours of home study plus 30 to 45 hours of "practical on-the-job training for a total of approximately 155 course work hours.

The tuition fee includes all of the following:

- Textbook: "Concepts in Dental Assisting", Richard Erickson, DDS, 2nd, Edition (DCI Publishing)
- One complete set of dental assisting scrubs
- All training and visual aids, materials and dental supplies used in the clinical training.
- Use of all equipment and instrumentation with actual "hands on" training during the course of study. There no hidden costs or expenses once you get started.
- A Certificate in Dental Assisting and a letter of recommendation outlining your training and experience will be awarded to all students who have attained a 70% or above grade average.
- X-ray training in accordance with state regulations and CPR training and certification.
- Training in all phases of General Dentistry, including, Endodontics, Crown & Bridge, Cosmetic Bonding, Amalgam Restorations, Impressions, Oral Surgery, Periodontics, 4-handed dentistry, front desk, and much more!
- Actual clinical experience and live patient practice.
- All training is done by dental professionals in a practicing dental office, not a classroom.

The tuition may be paid using one of the following payment options:

- Pre-Payment in Full - $2,750 on or before night of Open House ($245 discount)
- 3 Equal Payments – #1 Down payment, #2 by the 4th class, #3 by the 9th class.

Requirements and Expectations

Each student is required to have a high school diploma or a General Education Development (GED) Certificate.

Each student must be in good health and present a clean neat appearance. Each student must maintain professional and respectable behavior. Genesis Dental School of Assisting retains the right to dismiss students whose behavior is disrespectful, disruptive, inappropriate, immoral, illegal, or unethical as deemed by Company. Any student being dismissed will not be allowed to re-register or re-enter the program at any future time.

A graduation certificate, letter of recommendation, and pin will only be awarded to those students attaining a 70% or above grade average, and who have missed no more than 2 classes. Those students whose grade average is below 70% or who have missed more than 2 classes will not receive a certificate but will be allowed to retake the entire course (if desired) at a reduced fee of $1995.

Refunds and Cancellations

A full refund will be made of all deposits or payments if cancellation is made before the closing of registration which is the night of the Open House. (As part of this policy, and as a possible exception to the Open House deadline, is a three-business-day cooling off period, commencing with the day the enrollment agreement is signed or an initial deposit or payment toward tuition is made, until midnight of the third business day following such date or from the date that the student first visits the institution, whichever is later, during which time the contract may be rescinded and all monies paid refunded. Evidence of personal appearance at the institution or deposit of a written statement of withdrawal for delivery by mail or other means shall be deemed as meeting the terms of the cooling-off period).

After the night of the Open House but prior to the second class, all but $500.00 will be refunded if cancellation is made.

For cancellations during Class 2 through 5, $250.00 per session will be charged plus $500.00 for the first class and any remaining balance will be refunded. There will be no refunds after the fifth session.

Those wishing to cancel for illness or personal reasons may resume their course of study in the next class series with no penalty and may repeat the already completed sessions if desired. No refund of any kind will be awarded to students who have been dismissed.
